

Warrenton Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Warrenton, Va., January 21.—On Saturday last Mr. and Mrs. Gwyn T. Tompkins entertained the members of the Casanova Hunt, and the riding members of the Warrenton Hunt Club at an elaborate buffet luncheon, at their home near Warrenton. The lower part of their home is elaborately decorated for the occasion with holly and Christmas decorations, and the occasion was thoroughly enjoyed by every one present. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. V. G. Coates, Green Carter, Mrs. A. C. Humphries, Master and Mrs. Courthand H. Smith, of the Warrenton Hunt; Miss Bowen, Miss Nannie Spilman, Miss Edmonds, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Spilman, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Appleton, Miss Spilman, General R. D. Spilman, Mrs. F. A. B. Portman, Miss Ellen Low, Frank Lake, Mrs. Chester Coates, of Chicago; Mrs. M. G. Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Wyle, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Gaines, Miss Kate Kelly, Fred Satterlee, U. D. Bener, Penn Alice, Miss Louise Evans and Mr. Irvine, of St. Louis; Miss Eastdale.

The Warrenton Rifles, Company C, Second Virginia Regiment, gave a banquet at the Warren Green Hotel on Thursday evening. Their guests were Colonel Leedy, of Luray; Lieutenant Colonel Miller, of Front Royal; Lieutenant Walter, of Front Royal; Major Leach, of Front Royal; Captain E. Beverly Slater, of Washington; Lieutenant Wampler, of Culpeper; and Sergeant McMahon, United States Army, and Colonel Grenville Gaines, of Warrenton.

Miss Elizabeth Wilbur and William Wilbur, of Lexington, Pa., are in Warrenton at their home for several weeks. Mrs. Edward Trowbridge, of Providence, R. I., and Miss Sallie Anderson, of New York, are the guests of Mrs. Wyle Clark at Mrs. Edward Carter's for several weeks.

Beverly Warthimer returned on Monday to Alexandria, where he is a student of the Episcopal High School. Samuel Wortman, of Catlett's Station, has joined the Warrenton colony at Blacksburg, and will take the agricultural course.

Green Carter left this week for Florida, where he has accepted a position.

Robert Wall, of Washington, spent Sunday last in Warrenton.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Cook and the Misses Cook, who have been the guests of T. N. Fletcher, have returned to Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Chamberlain left on Tuesday for Baltimore, after spending several months in Warrenton.

Miss Virginia Hiltner left this week for Pennsylvania, where she will visit friends.

Mrs. Grenville Gaines left this week for Richmond, where she will spend several months. Miss Elizabeth Gaines, who has been the guest of Miss Carusi, of Washington, will join Mrs. Gaines in Richmond, and also spend several months in Richmond.

The first drag of the Warrenton Hunt Club that has been riding in some time, owing to the weather conditions and other complications, took place on Monday afternoon with the meet at Varner's gate. The course lay over an open and country, with plenty of stone and plank fences. The hounds were quick to pick up the scent and ran well from the moment they were thrown in. Those riding were Master C. H. Smith, whip, John S. Gaines; Mrs. Maddux, Mrs. Portman, J. P. Stone, George P. Stone and Lee Evans, of the Warrenton Hunt; and Master Edmonds and Green Carter, of the Casanova Hunt.

Miss Ellen Low, of Staeville, spent this week with Mrs. F. A. B. Portman.

W. B. Wilson left on Wednesday for Orange.

Judge E. S. Turner gave the first lecture of a series that will be given in the Warrenton library this winter. The lecture was well attended, and the subject was "Libraries in General Use."

Miss Sally Marshall will leave on Tuesday for Newport News, where she will visit friends. After several weeks in this place, Miss Marshall will go to Washington, Baltimore, New York and Philadelphia.

Mrs. Howard Peoples and little daughter, of Atlanta, Ga., are the guests of Mrs. M. G. Douglas. They arrived in Warrenton on Thursday.

Dr. Harry Kerr, of Washington, spent Wednesday with Dr. and Mrs. James Kerr, in Warrenton.

Miss Eva Wood went to Washington this week for a short visit.

Mrs. F. A. B. Portman leaves on Tuesday for a visit to Philadelphia.

Waverly Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Waverly, Va., January 21.—Thomas H. Howerton, who has been confined to his bed at the Memorial Hospital, Richmond, for the past six weeks, has returned home.

Mrs. E. L. Gray visited her sister, Miss Alice Darden, at Norfolk, this week.

Mrs. Lillie E. Vaughan and sister, Nell, have returned home after a stay of several days in Norfolk, this week. Miss Elise M. West, who has resided at Loomis, N. Y., for the past fifteen months, is visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. West, on Copperhunk Avenue.

Colonel and Mrs. J. E. West, of Suffolk, were guests of friends in Waverly this week.

Fred Ellis, of Norfolk, after visiting in the home of P. Fleetwood, in Waverly, returned home today.

Mrs. H. H. Stephenson, of Littleton, and Mrs. W. E. M. Thornton, of Lumberton, attended the meeting of the Sussex Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, in Waverly, on Thursday last.

Miss Nina A. Smith has returned home and resumed her duties as principal of the musical department of the Waverly High School, after a vacation of two weeks spent in Cincinnati, O.

Miss Grace West spent the day in Norfolk on Friday.

J. O. Faison, Tom Temple and A. N. Cox, of Disputanta, visited in Waverly this week.

John W. West spent Tuesday of this week in Suffolk.

Mrs. V. C. Johnson and Mrs. Linden Hancock visited Petersburg yesterday.

Radford Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Radford, Va., January 21.—Mrs. Robert Robinson and children and Miss Maggie Epling left Sunday to visit Mrs. J. W. Rawles, of Battery Park, near Norfolk.

Miss Rebecca Bird, niece of Captain Moran, of Radford, on Monday underwent an operation for appendicitis in St. Vincent's Hospital, Norfolk.

The Ladies Aid Society of Central Presbyterian Church will meet with Mrs. Hugh Cadden, Tuesday.

The banks and post-office were closed Lee's Birthday.

Mrs. L. P. Kearsley conferred the crosses of honor upon five of the veterans—E. M. Ingles, E. R. Meun, A. Nance, John W. Jones, R. E. House—and one was given to T. J. Northcross, whose father, a veteran, recently answered the roll call. Mrs. Kearsley is president of the New River Grays, United Daughters of the Confederacy, and the presentation took place in her office, where Judge Cassel made an address. This was followed by a smoker and war stories.

The Royal Arcanum here has elected the following officers: R. E. McNeal, regent; T. J. Bullard, vice-regent; R. S. Cecil, orator; W. H. Garkling, sitting past-regent; W. H. Garkling, secretary; H. C. Scott, collector; W. J. Kenders, treasurer; J. H. Burnett, chaplain; J. D. Bird, guide; Charles Wood, warden; Grant Graham, sentry; T. W. Shinn, J. D. Bird and J. H. Burnett, trustees.

Ex-Governor Tyler went to Lynchburg Thursday.

Mrs. L. Harry Whitmore entertained the Bible class Monday night. Present were Misses Tyler, George Howe, John Turner, Earl Gillespie, Garvin Martin, Clarence Haley, Will Rock, Arthur Dobson and Edna Hays.

Mrs. A. J. Boeck and daughter, Virginia, are spending a few weeks in Roanoke, with Mr. Boeck.

Dr. Garry H. Baker, of Montgomery, is visiting Mrs. A. G. Akers.

January 18. The marriage was performed at Bethel Methodist Episcopal Church at 9 o'clock in the morning.

A Julian Bagby and wife are in New York this week.

Mrs. Levin, the mother of Mrs. Ed. Moritz, who has been on a visit here for several weeks, returned to her home in Baltimore, on yesterday.

The Thimble Club was entertained this week by Miss Mae Owens, in her home on Fourth Street.

The Sunbeam Missionary Society of the Baptist Church, raised by voluntary contributions, $20 as a Christmas offering to build a chapel in Chofa, China, to the memory of the leader, who died in the fall, Mrs. G. F. Williams, of Richmond.

Mrs. William H. Bell, of West Point, is the local leader.

Mr. and Mrs. James Williams, of Richmond, have been the recent visitors of their sister, Mrs. H. F. Hargrave.

Williamsburg Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Williamsburg, Va., January 21.—Miss Jettie Thorp entertained the Choir Guild of Bruton Parish Church Wednesday night at her home on Francis Street. Those present were Mrs. Spencer Lane, Misses Emily Christian, Mab Stubbs, Bertha Brathwaite, Pinkie McFossett, May Arnold, Eva Wright, Sue Hundley and Miss M. Beck, the Rev. Rufin Jones, F. H. Hall, Mr. Fentress, Daingerfield Spencer and Dr. J. H. Hume.

Miss Rosa Bellamy, of Beaufort, S. C., is visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. J. R. Bellamy. Mr. Bellamy has gone to South Carolina, where he will reside, his wife joining him later.

Dr. W. L. Gatewood, who recently resigned from the medical staff of the Central State Hospital, spent a few days here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Gatewood, before entering upon the practice of his profession in Warwick county.

N. M. Medford, of North Carolina, brother of W. C. Medford, arrived last week and will remain in Williamsburg indefinitely.

Misses Letuse and Mather, after spending the past two months with Miss Cora Smith at the Audry House, left yesterday for Florida.

Miss Mary Carrington Galt, who has been the guest of Miss Emily Christian, has returned to her home in Norfolk.

Miss Marjorie Dana left the first of the week for Carolina county, where she went to enter Bowling Green Seminary.

Miss Annie Galt left Wednesday for Staunton, to visit Miss Mary Ware Galt, who is a student at Stuart Hall.

Mrs. Mary Alvey, of Richmond, was a recent visitor at the home of Mrs. George A. Hankins, on England Street.

Lucian Stubbs, of Norfolk, visited his uncle, Professor T. J. Stubbs, the first of the week.

Mrs. L. W. Lane, Jr., and Miss Martha Lane spent the first of the week in Norfolk.

Miss Sue Armintrout, of Petersburg, visited her sister, Miss Jennie Armintrout, this week.

Miss Ellis, of Shawsville, is the guest of Mrs. Leon G. Tyler at the college.

Mrs. W. L. Jones spent the week with her brother, T. J. Barlow, in Portsmouth.

PATRICIAN

Shoe for Women

$3.50

The Shoe That Appeals to Your Taste

Famous for Substantial Service

$4.00

The Aristocrat of Feminine Footwear

Striking Individuality of Style

SEYMOUR SYCLE

"Good Shoes—Careful Service—Honest Advertising"

Principles That Have Marked the Many Years of My Shoe Service to the People of Richmond.

11 West Broad Street

West Point Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
West Point, Va., January 21.—Mrs. W. F. Bray, of Wakema, who has been on a visit to relatives in town, has returned to her home, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Gillman, of Richmond, who has also been visiting here.

Mrs. Clyde P. Ross, formerly of Wakema, now of Anderson, S. C., is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Bray. She is accompanied by little Bray, Jr.

Miss Grace Pearl Volden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Walden, of Jamelea, was married to George Schalter, of Baltimore, Md., Wednesday,

January 18. The marriage was performed at Bethel Methodist Episcopal Church at 9 o'clock in the morning.

A Julian Bagby and wife are in New York this week.

Mrs. Levin, the mother of Mrs. Ed. Moritz, who has been on a visit here for several weeks, returned to her home in Baltimore, on yesterday.

The Thimble Club was entertained this week by Miss Mae Owens, in her home on Fourth Street.

The Sunbeam Missionary Society of the Baptist Church, raised by voluntary contributions, $20 as a Christmas offering to build a chapel in Chofa, China, to the memory of the leader, who died in the fall, Mrs. G. F. Williams, of Richmond.

Mrs. William H. Bell, of West Point, is the local leader.

Mr. and Mrs. James Williams, of Richmond, have been the recent visitors of their sister, Mrs. H. F. Hargrave.

Williamsburg Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Williamsburg, Va., January 21.—Miss Jettie Thorp entertained the Choir Guild of Bruton Parish Church Wednesday night at her home on Francis Street. Those present were Mrs. Spencer Lane, Misses Emily Christian, Mab Stubbs, Bertha Brathwaite, Pinkie McFossett, May Arnold, Eva Wright, Sue Hundley and Miss M. Beck, the Rev. Rufin Jones, F. H. Hall, Mr. Fentress, Daingerfield Spencer and Dr. J. H. Hume.

Miss Rosa Bellamy, of Beaufort, S. C., is visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. J. R. Bellamy. Mr. Bellamy has gone to South Carolina, where he will reside, his wife joining him later.

Dr. W. L. Gatewood, who recently resigned from the medical staff of the Central State Hospital, spent a few days here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Gatewood, before entering upon the practice of his profession in Warwick county.

N. M. Medford, of North Carolina, brother of W. C. Medford, arrived last week and will remain in Williamsburg indefinitely.

Misses Letuse and Mather, after spending the past two months with Miss Cora Smith at the Audry House, left yesterday for Florida.

Miss Mary Carrington Galt, who has been the guest of Miss Emily Christian, has returned to her home in Norfolk.

Miss Marjorie Dana left the first of the week for Carolina county, where she went to enter Bowling Green Seminary.

Miss Annie Galt left Wednesday for Staunton, to visit Miss Mary Ware Galt, who is a student at Stuart Hall.

Mrs. Mary Alvey, of Richmond, was a recent visitor at the home of Mrs. George A. Hankins, on England Street.

Lucian Stubbs, of Norfolk, visited his uncle, Professor T. J. Stubbs, the first of the week.

Mrs. L. W. Lane, Jr., and Miss Martha Lane spent the first of the week in Norfolk.

Miss Sue Armintrout, of Petersburg, visited her sister, Miss Jennie Armintrout, this week.

Miss Ellis, of Shawsville, is the guest of Mrs. Leon G. Tyler at the college.

Mrs. W. L. Jones spent the week with her brother, T. J. Barlow, in Portsmouth.